

„The Berlin Airlift - Tempelhof 1948“

by Barry Price.

In 1948 Stalin's ruthless rule over post-war Eastern Europe was extended to a blockade of the land supply routes to West Berlin. The freedom of West Berlin's 2 million population was maintained during 1948 and 1949 by a massive airlift of food, coal and other supplies over the Iron Curtain'.

Limited Edition of 850, signed and numbered by the artist. Image Format ca. 62 cm x 41 cm.