

No. 10 Alps Int'l. Golf & Climbing Club. 142 Yards.
Par 3

This hole is not as difficult for club regulars as it may appear to visiting interlopers. Once accustomed to the noisome valley echos, it simply needs correct alignment, a firm stroke with the proper club selection, a sure-footedness and an instinct for maneuvering one's body and ball against often capricious mountain winds. Number 14 handicap.
