

No. 9 St. Ian's Imperial & Ancient G.C. 687 Yards. Par 5

A stern finish to one of the world's legendary courses. There is little to say that is not readily apparent. Great distance, great accuracy and great finesse are crucial. The green, 160 feet above the sea, sits cheek by jowl with with a 600-year-old club-house that was once a Scottish Stronghold. The hole has yielded but three birdies in four centuries. Number 3 handicap.

Artist signed Open Edition print

Overall size: 18" x 24" (46 cm x 61 cm)

© Loyal H. Chapman

