

Hole of 10,000 Lakes

With a breathtaking view like this, and the roar of a wild river as a backdrop, a golfer can't help but feel strong and determined. But beware of things that no one can control, mainly Minnesota's violent minute-to-minute weather changes that detour even a perfectly struck shot into utter disaster. However, after the creatures, many errant shots have been turned into birdies by a friendly gallery always willing to help. Personally signed by the artist. Overall size ca. 18" x 24" (ca. 45 cm x 61 cm)
