

Mille Miglia 1955

The winning Mercedes 300SLR of Stirling Moss and navigator Denis Jenkinson negotiating a level crossing between Pescara and Rome on the way to victory in the 1955 Mille Miglia. Aided by Denis Jenkinson's pioneering navigation techniques, the pair won this great race in just 10 hours, 7 minutes and 48 seconds, an average speed of 97.96mph which was never to be beaten.

Edition signed by Stirling Moss and Denis Jenkinson.

Print size 33"x25" (84cm x 63cm)

Image size 26"x17" (66cm x 45cm)