

„Typhoons over the Rhine“

Mk1B Typhoons of 247 Squadron, based at Eindhoven, make a low-level attack against enemy river transport on the Rhine in November, 1944. Led by Squadron Leader B.G. ‘Stapme’ Stapleton, the 247 pilots continue their attack along the valley, strafing German transport and other targets of opportunity. The Hawker Typhoon established itself as the finest ground attack fighter of World War Two. A spectacular new collector print featuring the most successful ground attack fighter of World War II that typifies the role of this outstandingly rugged aircraft. Each is authenticated with the signatures of two highly decorated Typhoon pilots: Air Commodore C D NORTH-LEWIS DSO DFC Squadron Leader BASIL STAPLETON DFC

In addition, the Artist’s Proofs and Remarques are also signed by: Flight Lieutenant BASIL TATHAM A superb colour limited edition Companion Print is issued with every copy of TYPHOONS OVER THE RHINE, signed by: Flight Lieutenant ROY CRANE - Companion Print - „Typhoon Country”

Flt. Lt. Roy Crane, flying a Typhoon of 181 Squadron from their recently established base in Normandy, makes an attack on a German road convoy in the Falaise area, early August 1944. Overall size: 32¾" (83cms) wide x 23½" (60cms) high approx.

Companion print overall size: 17¾" (45cms) wide x 13½" (34cms) high approx.

